Director
IQAS

- As we move into a new month, we reflect on a productive September 2026, marked by continued progress in accreditation, capacity building, and engagement with the conformity assessment community.
- Throughout the month, IQAS Knowledge Centre continued its efforts to spread accreditation knowledge through focused training programs covering key international standards, requirements, and quality practices. These initiatives reflect IQAS' ongoing commitment to strengthening competence across the conformity assessment sector.
- Our continued commitment to quality, innovation, and capacity building drives us to enhance our accreditation services and support organizations in building confidence, competence, and consistency through internationally recognized standards and best practices.
- IQAS is a Full Member of APAC and Global ACI, and a Signatory to the APAC MRA for Testing & Calibration ISO/IEC 17025 and Medical Testing ISO 15189 schemes. Following the global transition, IAF and ILAC have merged to form Global ACI, which commenced operations on 1 January 2026.
- Accreditation provides formal recognition of an organization's competence and conformity with applicable standards, helping strengthen confidence in the reliability and consistency of conformity assessment results.
